

I am writing because of concern over the new LPFM stations that may take priority over K-LOVE. K-LOVE is an inspirational radio station that provides uplifting and encouraging music and information to myself, my family, and the community. Should K-LOVE get displaced by LPFM, it would be devastating to the community. In a world full of tragedy, K-LOVE is a positive force that should not be replaced.